HYACKS OFF TO KELOWNA

After 3 straight home games, the Hyacks are off to Kelowna this Friday for a game in the Apple Bowl. Their opponents, the KSS Owls, are ranked 4th in BC, completing a series of games that sees New West play the top 4 teams in BC. This far the Hyacks are 0-3 in those games and are looking for their first win of the season, in what will be their final non-league game. Kelowna is led by arguably the best player in BC, QB/LB Taylor Loffler, who has already accepted a full scholarship to play for Boise St University, the 3rd ranked team in the entire NCAA.

Last Friday began with promise for the Hyacks as the team started the game with a 9 minute, 16-play drive that took them deep into VC territory. Unfortunately it ended with a turnover and the Hyacks were unable to recover. The New West defense played well, limiting VC to just 147 yards. Regan Eberding (80 yds in 1 half) and Ian Henderson (7 tackles) turned in solid performances. For a complete recap of

Friday's game, please log onto: <http://www.royalcityrecord.com/sports/index.html>

Julian Ramirez scored a 32 yard TD for the JV Hyacks in a loss to WJ Moutat on Thursday. Despite falling behind early, the JVs didn't give up and showed great spirit, shutting out their opponents in the 2nd half.

Both Hyack teams are making the trip to Kelowna this Friday. The JV team should be at Mercer at 8:30 am while the Varsity team should be there by 11:30 am. The JV's will arrive back at Mercer at approximately 11:30 pm and the Srs return at 2 am.
