AFTERNOON GAME AT MERCER ON FRIDAY

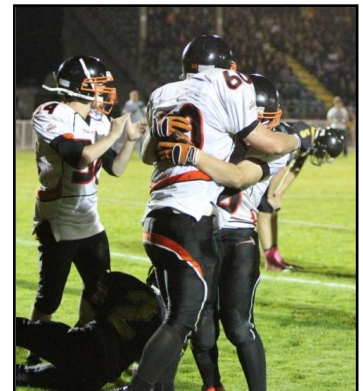

Mercer Stadium was packed the last time the Hyacks played an afternoon game, in 2007 against Mt Douglas

After having the past weekend off, the Hyacks return to action this Friday with the Mt Douglas Rams providing the opposition. The extra week has given the Hyacks a rare mid-season opportunity to “get back to basics” and refocus on the upcoming conference schedule. Derek Stagner, Clay Alexson and Kevin Sabau are among those who have really stood out in practice this week. The program concluded the week by taking both the Srs and JVs to the Shrum Bowl at UBC.

“While playing last Friday would have given a lot of backups an opportunity for some extended playing time, the positives are that we were able to get healthy and improve in some key areas,” said Head Coach, Farhan Lalji. “We have only played very good teams this season and that’s the best way to prepare for the good teams we have ahead of us on the schedule.”

The Rams (2-1 league, 4-2 overall) have earned honorable mention recognition in the provincial rankings all season. They are coming off a hard-fought 34-16 loss to Vancouver College last Friday in Victoria. Mt Douglas is led by Tyrell Davis, who is arguably the best RB in BC as a Gr 11, and Tyler Fong who is an exceptional athlete at QB. The Hyacks are 1-1 in league play after their forfeit win.

The Hyacks have won both previous varsity meetings between the two programs: 38-13 in Victoria in 2008 and 28-14 in 2007 at Mercer. Friday’s game will be a rare afternoon contest kicking off at 2 pm, and teachers at NWSS will be given the opportunity to bring their block D classes to the game. There will be no admission charge for the game.

CONGRATS TO ALL HYACKS IN SHRUM BOWL XXXIII

Six NWSS Football alumni took were members of the respective teams involved in Shrum Bowl XXXIII this past Friday night at UBCs Thunderbird Stadium. Kevin Semenowich (LB, SFU) and Cody Husband (OL, UBC) started in the game and both played well. The pair were teammates on the 2004 edition of the Hyacks, so it was enjoyable to see them go head to head (and we all saw Cody get away with a hold on Kevin!).

Freshman Casey Chin, normally a started for the Clan, saw limited playing time because of a foot injury. Vivie Bojilov (LB, SFU), Marko Susic (DB, SFU) and Alex Saavedra (OL, UBC) are red-shirting for their respective teams. SFU won the game 27-20, which means coach Lalji gets bragging rights over coaches Oatway, Mojo, Galick, Klimos and Leslie!
